Ben. Savage and Sallie Morton, colored, were granted license to marry Saturday.

Several young folks of the East End attended the tent meeting at Plinville Sunday night.

Millinery Opening—Fall and Winter Millinery opening at Mrs. O. B. Stitt's Thursday, October 1st.

Mr. J. M. Lashbrook has been appointed Treasurer of Bernard School District No. 53, with W. H. Yancoy surety.

The C. and O. excursion yesterday was the largest of the season. Twelve packed coaches passed up. A large number got off here.

Mr. Joseph Robinson and Miss Maude Robinson, second cousins and 21 each, both of Mason county, married Saturday in Covington.

Miss Lida Minton, daughter of Mr. Mart Minton, will be married to Mr. Walter Davis of Lexington Wednesday, September 30th.

Miss Clemmie Tolle assisted the choir of the First M. E. Church, South, yesterday, she rendering several very pretty pieces of vocal music.

Colonel James Haason's handsome "bull pup," encouraged by an admiring crowd of boys, fairly "shook the gizzards out" of a three-foot house-snake in the C. and O. Station grounds Saturday.

Mr. W. H. Frederick of East Second, Sixth Ward, ran a rusty nail in her hand Saturday. The wound gave considerable pain yesterday, but it is to be hoped that nothing serious will arise from it.

William Donnelly, aged about 25, whose home is said to be near Ashland, jumped off the Lizzie Bay below this city Friday night and was drowned. He boarded the boat at Chilo. The body has not been recovered.

The Democratic primary in Covington Saturday was a very animated affair. It was a tussle between the Pughites and the McInerneyites, the former winning. Both sides were armed, and there were fights to spare.

Mr. John Dnley, President of the Board of Trade, Judge A. M. J. Cochran and Mr. J. Ed. Parker have been named by Governor Beckham as delegates to the National Prison Association, which will assemble in Louisville October 3-5.

Major Hutchins has secured an increase in pension for John P. Parks of this city from $6 to $10 a month from June 8th, 1903; also an increase for William H. Craycraft of Kennard, this county, from $8 to $12 a month from May 23rd, 1903.

Charles Stricklett, a young lawyer from quiet Vanceburg, went recently to live in strenuous Covington. Saturday he took part in the Democratic primary there as an Inspector on the anti-Pugh side, and was promptly dumped out of the booth by Judge Patty Haelein of Chief Pugh's police toughs.

Having accepted the agency for a line of fine engraved stationery, in order to introduce this line we will furnish 100 handsome engraved visiting cards with plate for $1. this for a limited time; 100 cards from your plate for 60c. Orders received for engraved wedding invitations. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Another try will be made today to raise the Southern tower of the across-the-river telephone connection. It will be remembered that at the first attempt the wire rope parted, letting the tower fall some twenty-two feet. The structure is wholly of iron, forty feet high, and will stand on the river bank East of Commerce street.

The fire early yesterday morning was the burning of two cottages in the Sixth Ward. One belonged to Grayson Morton, colored, and was only partially destroyed, both house and contents being fully insured. The other house belonged to Mrs. Laura Johnson, colored, and was totally destroyed, with insurance sufficient to cover loss. The fire originated in the Johnson house and is somewhat of a mystery as the woman had left for Cincinnati the day before.

WAS RALLY DAY!

Appeal For a Similar Condition All Over the County.

It was my pleasure to be present at the Rally Day exercises of one of our city Churches yesterday morning.

The school is the largest in Maysville. It is made so partly by reason of the large membership of the Church, but the large attendance is mainly due to the fact that its Superintendent is a business man who applies business methods to this branch of Church work, and his absolute devotion to and trust in God. Nearly 200 persons were present at the opening of the fall and winter campaign. No doubt, before the 1st of January, 1904, at least 300 scholars will be enrolled in this school.

Church workers of Maysville and Mason, let us have a Rally Day! Not be content until the entire Church becomes a part of the Sunday-school; not be content until every boy and girl in Mason county is in a class in some Sunday-school. We owe it to them. We have not done our duty if we stop short of this.

All kinds of School Supplies are sold at Ray's Postoffice Drugstore.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth McGinn, widow of the Rev. J. B. McGinn, many years ago Pastor of the Christian Church in this city, died at Versailles Saturday of heart trouble after a long illness.

It was hoped by his many friends here that Mr. Charles J. Collins would succeed Mr. E. H. Binzel as L. and N. Agent in this city; but word comes that a gentleman longer yet no more faithful in the Company's employ will get the place.

Robert Kelley, aged 60, an ex-Federal soldier and pensioner, has mysteriously disappeared from home near Owingsville. Kelley sold his farm for several hundred dollars and borrowed all the money his wife and her sister had and disappeared. No trace of him can be found and it is not known whether or not he has met with foul play.

PLEASED WITH TREATMENT.

The "Boys" Who Came From Newport to the Late Reunion.

Cincinnati Times-Star.

The members from Newport, Bellevue and Dayton who were in attendance at the annual reunion of the Sixteenth Kentucky Infantry and the Tenth Kentucky Cavalry, which was held at Maysville, reached home Friday. There were nearly 300 Veterans present, which was the largest attendance of any reunion held in many years. Among those attending the reunion who were former residents of Campbell county were three from Idaho, two from Indiana and one from Iowa.

So thoroughly pleased were the visitors at the cordial manner in which they were received on all sides that when an effort was made to change the place for the next meeting it was voted down almost unanimously. A motion that the reunions be held annually at Maysville on September 23d carried without a dissenting vote.

The Newport boys mingled with comrades whom they had not seen since the close of the War, and citizens of Maysville, without exception, vied with each other in their efforts to please and entertain the grand old Veterans. In fact not only private homes, but the town itself was thrown wide open to the Veterans, and a promise exacted that all should return to the next reunion.

Never compare prices without comparing quality; you will find more difference in quality than you will in price. See our monuments and markers before buying elsewhere. MURRAY & THOMAS.

According to a report read at the Bible College of Kentucky University, 1,138 additions to the Christian Church were made in the mountainous section of Kentucky during the past summer as a result of evangelical work by a band of 20 students. The tour was made under the direction of R. B. Neal of Grayson.

BECAUSE!

The enlargement of a business is a safe standard by which to judge public appreciation but there is even stronger proof—unceasing crowds. No matter how excellent your memory, can you even approximately count how often you hear the expression—"Hunts" are always busy?" Of course you realize we are not busy by chance—such conditions never "happen"—there is an obvious cause for such an effect. The discriminating public patronizes us—

Because assured the best no matter how little the price.

Because our policy precludes dissatisfaction—courteous treatment is a guarantee of the house.

Because we provide an assortment that makes selection a delight.

Because we never insult the intelligence of our clientele by offering passe merchandise.

Because 52 years adherence to every law of justice and honesty makes you feel safe with us.

You suffered the inconvenience of our old store year after year and came to us in increasing numbers, because of the vital facts above. Now, at last, it is our privilege to offer you surroundings worthy your generous patronage. Tomorrow we will tell you our new plans.

D. HUNT & SON.

Mrs. L. V. Davis's Fall line of Millinery is now complete.

Mrs. J. O. A. Vaught is reported quite sick at her home in Danville.

MILLINERY OPENING.

Miss Anna King will have her fall millinery opening October 1st, to which she invites the ladies to call, inspect goods and learn prices.

WANTED.

We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Liver Troubles that has not been cured; and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual constipation, nervous dyspepsia, headache, despondent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact, any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try a 25c bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you. The 25c size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75c. At Henry W. Ray's, next door to Postoffice.

MANY GOOD FEATURES.

Marked the Faust Minstrels at the Huntington Theater.

Huntington, W. Va., Advertiser Sept. 25th.

Faust's Minstrels played before a good sized audience at the Huntington Theater Thursday night, and many of the features of the entertainment were very good. "Gov." Bowen was very good both in his coon songs and dance as was also Frank Farron in a beautiful solo, "Rose, My Rose." Several of the jokes were new and the first part seemed to satisfy the main part of the audience and highly entertained the galleries. The DeArvilles in a musical and pantomime act were very good as were Castle and Collins in a short sketch and dance. "Pop" Carr, the man with the rose, caused a number of laughs. The Faust family did not appear to be so good as they have been in previous seasons when they did their acrobatic work act with other minstrels. At Washington Opera-house tonight. Secure seats now at Ray's Drugstore.

Stomach Trouble.

"I have been troubled with my stomach for the past four years," says D. L. Beach of Clover Hook Farm, Greenfield, Mass. "A few days ago I was induced to buy a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I have taken part of them and feel a great deal better." If you have any trouble with your stomach try a box of these Tablets. You are certain to be pleased with the result. Price 25c. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

ALABAMA will hereafter be a poor field for the Walking Delegate. The Legislature has just passed a law prohibiting boycotts.

ONE Cincinnati man fell down a few steps at his home and died in a few hours; another fell over a cliff one hundred feet high and still lives. It's hard to tell what a Cincinnati man can't do.

The Louisville Post says there is no Democratic party in Kentucky, but the Beckham party claims to be its heir, and the adherents of the new party are busy denouncing every man independent enough to refuse to worship at the Beckham shrine.

Just as might have been expected. The clouds had hardly finished falling on the coffin of the late Hon. VINCENT BOREING, before JOHN D. WHITE hopped up and announced himself a candidate for Congress from the Eleventh District. It's a wonder he hadn't done so a few days sooner.

A NEW, thoroughly revised and carefully corrected edition of the speech of CALEB POWERS in his own defense is ready for distribution. Friends of justice, who are legion in Kentucky, should see that every voter in the state receives a copy of this remarkable discourse, the utterance of dauntless courage against organized injustice.

THE great falling off in the Prohibition vote of Massachusetts indicates that the people of the Bay State have almost all come to believe that local option is a far better promoter of temperance than an absolute Prohibition Law that doesn't prohibit. In 1884 the Prohibition vote in Massachusetts was 9,923, in 1892 it was 7,539 and in 1902 it was 3,588.

WHEN CURT. JETT was sentenced to be hanged between sunrise and sunset on the 18th of December, his Attorney informed Judge OSBORNE that there would be a whole lot of sunrises and sunsets before his client was hung. With the "convictions" and "sentences" of CURT. JETT and CALEB POWERS, the politicians of Kentucky have an asset that will last through several campaigns.

ONE of these days the Kentucky Democracy will come to the conclusion that JOHN G. CARLISLE is a greater man than PERCY HALEY. That will be the beginning of some wisdom—it will also be the beginning of better and honest days.

THERE isn't anything wrong with Lynchburg, Tenn., at least so far as the name is concerned. A few evenings since a mob of unlucky thirteen assaulted the Jail, broke open the doors and shot to death a Negro prisoner charged with simple assault. When the mob had completed its butchery and started to leave, the plucky Sheriff arrested three of the participants and they are now boarding with him. The proper punishment of these law-breakers will be a wholesome lesson to mobocrats.

DURING the last thirty years $240,000,000 has been spent on an Indian population not exceeding 180,000. The appropriations of the United States Government for Indians in 1901 were $9,040,475.89, and more than $3,600,000 was used for education. In 1877 only $20,000 was appropriated for Indian schools. There has been a large and constant increase to the present time, until in the last twenty years $45,000,000 has been spent by the Government for the education of not over 20,000 Indian pupils. In addition a very large amount has been spent by the mission schools of the various Christian denominations. There were, in 1901, 2,208 Indian school employees. The education of each pupil cost the Government more than $180.

DESPITE "Teddy's" fears of "race suicide," there is consternation among the members of the Board of Education over the assertion in a report of Commissioner of Education HAUPT for the Sixth School District of New York that the average rate of increase in the number of babies in Manhattan has grown from 5 to 11 an hour, or to one baby every five minutes. These figures were furnished by Dr. HAUPT as the result of an investigation which the Board of Education is carrying on to find out what preparation it must make to provide room which the babies of the present will need as the pupils of a few years hence. Dr. HAUPT states that he also finds the death rate for children is falling from one-third to one-tenth, owing to measures for protecting babies from impure milk and unsanitary arrangements. He believes that in the main the increase is caused by the tremendous immigration to New York City. Dr. HAUPT asserts that babies are born at the rate of one every four minutes in the neighborhood of Houston street, and about one a month in the Murray Hill residence section. These two quarters are the extremes of the social divisions.

"H. L. Ryer, a well known cooper of this town, says he believes Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. AMENDE HONORABLE!

The Ledger's Informant Please Take the Stand and Be Sworn.

The gentleman who gave to THE LEDGER, with such precise detail, the original item—and it surely was "original"—will please go off into a quiet corner and read the following denial of his glossy story. THE LEDGER is glad of the opportunity to set itself right, even at the expense of such a caustic card from Colonel Rankins:

THAT FAKE

About Racing—Card From Mr. James M. Rankins in Denial.

Mr. OLIVER, Ky., Sept. 23, 1903.
Editor Tribune Democrat: In THE MAYSVILLE LEDGER of yesterday appears a sensational account of the accident that happened to my 'bus at Shannon hill Monday afternoon, and approaches about as near the truth as the information usually furnished that paper by the same source from this county. There was no racing. The other 'bus was three-quarters of an hour's time ahead of my 'bus. We had eight passengers and 2,000 pounds of freight, and were making no effort to race or pass anybody. The accident was absolutely unavoidable under the circumstances.

I have aimed to attend to my own business strictly; to render good service for my patrons at reasonable prices, and to do right between man and man. I will further add that nobody was either drunk or drinking on my 'bus.

WRECKED GENERALLY.

Occupants of a Buggy Badly Shaken Up By a Wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. Upton Soward of the Farrar's creek neighborhood came to the city Friday to do some shopping.

After getting through with their business they started on their way home, but had gotten no farther than Limestone street when an accident befell them that they will not soon forget.

Mr. and Mrs. Soward were seated in their buggy and were crossing Limestone, when the vehicle was struck by a Standard Oil wagon. The tongue of the wagon caught the buggy in such a manner as to lift the entire top off and wreck things generally.

Mrs. Soward either jumped or was thrown to the ground, she does not know exactly which, and was tangled up with the debris when rescued. She received painful injury to her right leg and her arm was considerably bruised, as well as being pretty well jolted all over.

Under the circumstances it is fortunate that they escaped as well as they did.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

KENTUCKY IN ARCHES.

State Name to Be Spelled in Hemp, Tobacco, Corn, Etc.

PLANS FOR AGRICULTURAL DISPLAY

Everything "Grown in Kentucky" to Be Generously Cared For in the Exhibit at the World's Fair.
A Miniature Garden of Ginseng to Be One of the Features.

Eight unique arches over the entrances to as many aisles will attract the thousands of visitors in the Palace of Agriculture at the World's fair next year to Kentucky's exhibit of agricultural products. Each of these arches will spell the word "Kentucky." On the east side will be one made of hemp, on the west one made of blue grass, while three will be erected at the north and south, those on the north being of oats, wheat and corn respectively, and those on the south of rye, tobacco and orchard grass respectively.

Colonel Ion B. Nall, the state commissioner of agriculture, who is chairman of the agricultural committee of the Kentucky Exhibit association, has submitted to Chief Frederick W. Taylor of the department of agriculture of the St. Louis Exposition, a floor plan covering the 5,000 square feet to be devoted to Kentucky's general agricultural display, which has been approved by Mr. Taylor. In this space Colonel Nall has generously assigned sections to be devoted to everything that grows on the soil of the Blue Grass commonwealth, which is only another way of saying everything that can be cultivated on the earth. In the center there will be an attractive pyramid, on which all Kentucky's products will be displayed in small quantities. To the right will be meadow grasses, pasture grasses, clover, peas, rape, soja beans, millet and other forage plants, together with wild and uncultivated grasses.

On the aisle adjoining will be the big hemp display to be made in Kentucky's name, wherein will be shown this fiber growing, with the hemp hold 40 square feet devoted to rye, oats and wheat, displayed in bundles and in the grain. Here space will be reserved for farmers', seedmen's and millers' samples. The concluding sections of the north end of the exhibit will be devoted to orchard products and beeswax and honey display, miscellaneous products and the exhibit of the State Bureau of Agriculture and the State Experiment Station. At either side of the central pyramid there will be two diamond-shaped bluegrass plots.

COLLECTIVE COAL EXHIBIT.

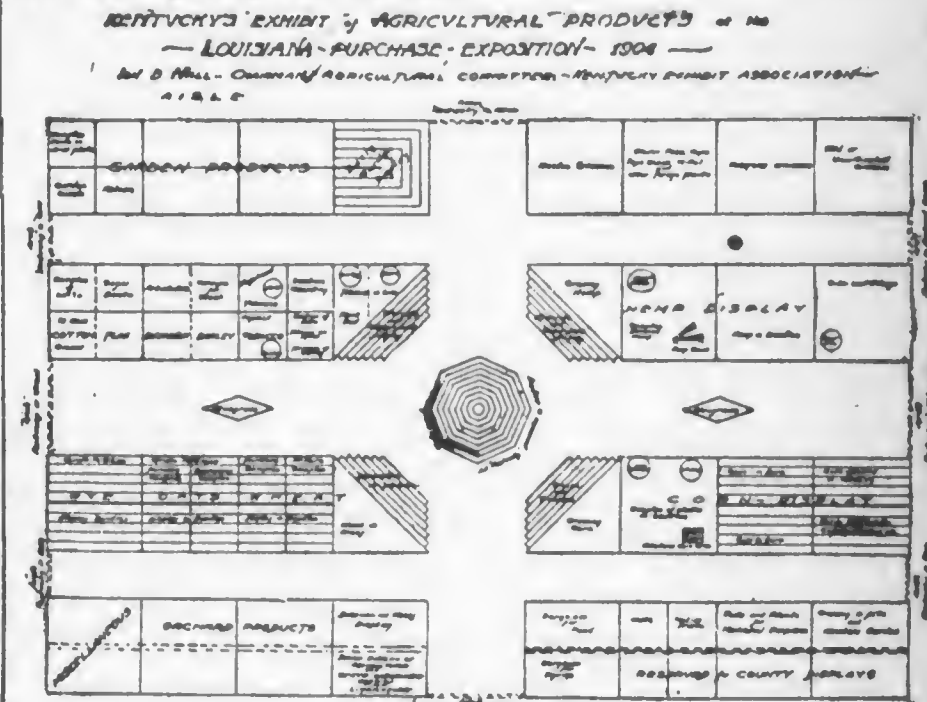

West Virginia Will Take a Prominent Part in the Black Diamond Display at the World's Fair.

West Virginia coal operators, at a meeting held in Parkersburg recently, decided that they would make an exhibit at the World's Fair, from 10 to 20 times larger than they made at Chicago 10 years ago. The Fairmount district said that it would require an outlay of $15,000 to install their exhibit alone, and all other districts will make similar displays.

West Virginia coal will be a part of a collective exhibit in which every coal-producing state in the Union will participate. The displays will be so arranged that while each district's exhibit is distinctive, all the districts of the state will make up one state exhibit. And the states are so arranged that the combined exhibits of all will make up one mammoth exhibit for the United States.

The government has appropriated $3,500,000 to establish at Washington a permanent museum, and the exhibits of the states may be removed to Washington and made permanent in the event state officials so desire. This is another incentive for the coal-producing states to make the best possible displays at the World's Fair. The collective coal exhibit will be made in the Palace of Mines and Metallurgy.

Mr. E. W. Parker of Washington city, who has charge of the installation of this collective coal exhibit, recently visited Louisville to meet the coal members of the Kentucky Exhibit Association's mineral committee, and confirmed the promise made by Chief Holmes of the Mines Department of the Exposition to the effect that Kentucky would not only be given space in the national display of stack made famous by James Lane Allen in his noted work, "The Reign of Law." One of the features of this exhibit will be the breaking of hempen an old-fashioned hemp brake by the champion in this art from Kentucky. Hemp is also to be shown in bundles and with all the manufactured products of same. Ten square feet is to be devoted close by to silo and silage, with a small glass silo in the corner. Next will come 40 square feet filled with corn, in the stalk, in the ear and shelled, with the various corn products, including cellulose. A miniature corn crib is to be built, and if possible growing corn will be shown.

There will also be displayed on this side of the exhibit sorghum for feed and for syrup, nuts, native fruits, roots and plants for medicinal purposes, and ginseng in pots, with a miniature garden of same.

With space reserved for distinctive county displays, this, the south side of the exhibit, will be complete.

On the north side, as on the south, there will be four large spaces with aisles between, divided into sections to accommodate the remaining agricultural display. The first of these will be given over exclusively to garden products with an early garden display. In this space is to be shown samples of seeds on dried plants, all the different garden seeds, melons, etc. Everything that can be carried over either in dry or cold storage, that can not be produced prior to April of next year, will be put in this space for the opening of the Exposition. As the fresh vegetables begin to ripen weekly shipments will be made from different points in Kentucky to the World's Fair for this part of the exhibit.

In the next space there will be a small exhibit of tobacco shown in a hogshead and in the plant bed, with growing tobacco in tubs. Only a small section is devoted to tobacco here because 5,000 square feet is given to Kentucky in another part of the Palace of Agriculture. Adjoining this tobacco display there will be samples of the different Kentucky soils, sugar beets, artichokes, turnips for stock, barley, buckwheat, flax and cotton on the stalk and ginned. It is not generally known that Kentucky can make a display of cotton, and this is to be one of the eye-openers of Kentucky exhibit.

coal, but would be allowed to exhibit the products of its mines in the Kentucky space in the Mineral building. This is a concession granted no other State.

HOW TO SHIP APPLES.

Directions Given Those Who Will Exhibit the King of Fruits at the World's Fair.

The following directions have been issued by M. F. Johnson, chairman of the Horticultural Committee, Kentucky Exhibit Association, for the guidance of those who will send apples for the fruit display at the St. Louis Exposition next year:

"Select each specimen with the utmost care. Don't let fruit be over-ripe. Take only the very best, such as is as near perfection in size, shape and color, and free from blemishes as possible. Avoid unnecessary handling, don't bruise, wrap each specimen separately in paper and better wrap in two papers. Use paraffine or tissue paper if obtainable; if not, then use newspaper or some soft paper. Pack carefully in barrels or boxes. Fill them so that when the heads or tops are put on the fruit will be held firmly in place. If possible fill a package with one variety and mark the name of variety on package. If a package has more than one variety in it, then put the name of variety with the fruit and put strong paper over them and then put the name with the next variety, and so on until the package is filled. Mark such packages "mixed." In every case mark the name of variety and name and address of the grower and community. Put only varieties of the same time of ripening in same package. As soon as prepared ship promptly to the "Kentucky Exhibit Association, Louisville, Ky.," and notify the secretary of the shipment, so that the fruit can be placed promptly in cold storage. The cold storage men of Louisville generously give us storage free. Show them that you appreciate their kindness by sending fruit promptly.

"These rules are intended for fruit gathered this year for cold storage, but they apply in a general way for handling fresh fruits next year. Organize a local society, so as to keep your county well represented next year. It is the best opportunity you will ever have to advertise your county."
